Academic libraries are libraries of universities, university colleges, and all institution of high learning. The purpose of university education is to discover the truth about matters, record, and preserve the truth, as well as disseminating this knowledge to its students and the public. An academic library is often regarded as the central organ of the institution. It is the heart of institution, and the central workshop of all academic activities. The resources of academic libraries are often advanced and very selected.

Many academic libraries also have subject specialists who are in charge of the various branch libraries of for specialized reference centers devoted to individual fields.

JAWABAN :

Based on text “Academic libraries are libraries of universities...”, Here is an example of the sentence being searched for:

1. 2 kalimat sederhana (simple sentence):

- Academic libraries are libraries. (Subjek: Academic libraries, Predikat: are libraries. Ini adalah satu klausa independen.)

- The purpose of university education is to discover the truth. (Subjek: The purpose of university education, Predikat: is to discover the truth. Ini juga satu klausa independen.)

2. 2 kalimat majemuk (compound sentence):

- Academic libraries are often advanced and very selected, and many academic libraries also have subject specialists who are in charge of the various branch libraries or for specialized reference centers devoted to individual fields. (Klausa independen pertama: Academic libraries are often advanced and very selected. Klausa independen kedua: many academic libraries also have subject specialists who are in charge of the various branch libraries or for specialized reference centers devoted to individual fields. Kedua klausa dihubungkan oleh konjungsi koordinatif “and”).

- The purpose of university education is to discover the truth about matters recorded, and preserve the truth, as well as disseminating this knowledge to its students and the public. (Klausa independen pertama: The purpose of university education is to discover the truth about matters recorded, and preserve the truth. Klausa independen kedua: disseminating this knowledge to its students and the public (dengan subjek yang sama yaitu the purpose of university education yang dihilangkan). Kedua klausa dihubungkan oleh konjungsi koordinatif “and”).

3. 1 kalimat kompleks (complex sentence):

- Because academic libraries are libraries of universities, university colleges, and all institution of high learning, the purpose of university education is to discover the truth about matters, record, and preserve the truth, as well as disseminating this knowledge to its students and the public. (Klausa dependen :Klausa ini diawali dengan konjungsi subordinatif “because,” sehingga tidak dapat berdiri sendiri sebagai kalimat yang utuh, Klausa independen :Klausa ini memiliki subjek (“the purpose of university education”) dan predikat (“is to discover... disseminate...”) dan dapat berdiri sendiri sebagai kalimat yang lengkap. Karena kalimat tersebut memiliki satu klausa dependen dan satu klausa independen, maka dengan tepat dikategorikan sebagai kalimat kompleks.
